TIMELESS

LOGLINE

After a magical dating app sends a tightly wound Las Vegas entrepreneur back to Swinging London in 1966 to meet her supposed soulmate, she must choose between the perfect man she thought she wanted and the wonderfully unpredictable life she never knew she needed.

1 THERE'S AN APP FOR THAT

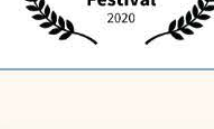

Renee Robinson has built her life around a plan: successful career, disciplined routines, inspirational affirmations—and the perfect man beside her. Then she catches her boyfriend cheating and watches her carefully constructed future collapse. Drunk, heartbroken, and convinced the answer is simply finding the right partner, Renee discovers Kindred Spirits, a mysterious app promising to locate her soulmate. She takes the quiz, agrees she'll do anything to meet him...and wakes up in London, 1966.

2 SWINGING LONDON

Stranded in another era, Renee is swept into a world of fashion, music and possibility. Her dressmaking talent lands her alongside legendary designer Mary Quant, while charming BBC reporter John Fullerton appears to be exactly the sophisticated soulmate she ordered. But then there's Mick Harred—a musician and paramedic who is spontaneous, curious and completely outside Renee's plan. Between fashion shows, rock clubs, unexpected friendships, and a London coming alive with cultural change, Renee begins discovering how exhilarating life can be when she stops trying to control it.

3 SHOULD I STAY OR SHOULD I GO?

Returned abruptly to Las Vegas, Renee finally sees her old life—and the expectations behind it—for what they are. Kindred Spirits gives her one final choice: stay home or go back. Renee chooses 1966. But she isn't simply choosing a man. Standing alone in rainy London, she realizes the future she wants isn't the polished one she imagined. When Mick's ambulance drives by, Renee runs after it—and toward a life she has finally chosen for herself.
